

Do all the formatives and read all directions before you start working on the assignment.

Do all of your formatives when they are due. Once you miss one it's easy to miss another. If you want to revise, you need all formatives in.

Do Not be a grasshopper.

When we didn't understand if you would teach it more or improve the way you taught it.

Don't ever be offended by some things Foster says, he's just kidding! 😊

Do all formatives, it'll definitely help you in the end.

Do the formatives, they will help you in the long-run. Always be honest with Foster and never be afraid to give him advice or your opinion.

there is no way to fail unless failing forward or do nothing and you are a great teacher and not to take you seriously all the time!

teaching how to write better & make me ready for college teaching me about life and how to be a mature adult.

SBG was confusing at first but throughout the first trimester you will learn to like it and wish other teachers would use it too. You should be excited to take his class!

You succeeded in causing internal motivation. When I did a paper I did it because I wanted to get better or because I wanted to know that my best work was above average. Do your formatives

I would tell future students to not be intimidated by your grading system.

I would also tell them that they will have fun in your class. to do all the formatives.

One thing I would tell your future students would be to complete the formatives on time, because the class will go by alot easier.

You are becoming an adult, and Mr. Foster treats like one.

Creating a better Standard based grading program. It helped me as a student, learn more and learn from myself by making me want to turn in work when I didn't have to.

I would tell them to ask question if they need to, don't be shy.

"I would tell them to pay attention and do all of their formatives. This is key to understanding the material and 'failing forward'."

Do all of your formatives and learn your mistakes so you will succeed on the final and keep fixing the final until you okay with your grade.

The formative and summative practices I learned alot when it came time for the formative part I knew what I was doing because of all the summatives I took

Mr. Foster is a really good teacher. SBG may seem difficult in the beginning but after you do it for awhile you want every teacher to grade like Mr. Foster.

Teaching us to have intrinsic motivation instead of extrinsic motivation.
(Ant v. Grasshopper)

questions and participate in class discussions. Also, to do the formatives even though they technically do not affect your final grade.

to answer
Make sure to do

All formatives and summatives even though you have the whole + time for all of your formatives so your summative isn't as stressful